MAX & BEVERLY BOWMAN AWARDS

Eligibility Requirements For

FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN ATHLETES (FCA) SCHOLARS STUDENTS

Up to $2,500 in Fellowship Grants for FCA Scholars

Start Your Quest!

The Max and Beverly Bowman Awards are exclusive for students (including graduates) of FCA who select option 2 as part of the FCA Scholars program.

In cooperation with Fellowship of Christian Athletes and our accredited partners, these awards are given in four grants over the duration of 48 credits of enrollment in your chosen degree with a partner institution.<sup>1</sup>

Grant I: $625

- Students who qualify for the first “Max and Beverly Bowman Award” of $625 must be 1) enrolled in the non-academic Hartwell Fellowship Program and 2) enrolled with a cooperating accredited partner into a degree program and 3) successfully complete 12 or more college credits (typically four courses) in the chosen degree program.

Grant II: $625

- Students who qualify for the second “Max and Beverly Bowman Award” of $625 must be 1) enrolled in the non-academic Hartwell Fellowship Program and 2) enrolled with a cooperating accredited partner into a degree program and 3) successfully complete 12 or more additional college credits (typically four courses) in the chosen program.

Grant III: $625

<sup>1</sup> HQ does not administer any aspect of participation in Title IV programs. Degrees are offered wholly by accredited institutions. HQ enrollment is optional and not required to earn an academic degree from partner institutions.

- Students who qualify for the third “Max and Beverly Bowman Award” of $625 must be 1) enrolled in the non-academic Hartwell Fellowship Program and 2) enrolled with a cooperating accredited partner into a degree program and 3) successfully complete 12 or more additional college credits (typically four courses) in the chosen program.

Grant IV: $625

- Students who qualify for the fourth “Max and Beverly Bowman Award” of $625 must be 1) enrolled in the non-academic Hartwell Fellowship Program and 2) enrolled with a cooperating accredited partner into a degree program and 3) successfully complete 12 or more additional college credits (typically four courses) in the chosen program.

Students must apply for these grants in writing by contacting HQ to express their intent to begin the “Max and Beverly Bowman Awards” program. Once all conditions above and below are met for each grant, students must provide notice of eligibility in writing by contacting HQ to give the appropriate permission for us to confirm with the accredited partner that conditions have been met.

- Eligible FCA students may elect to have these awards applied to fellowship program costs and other nonprofit (tax-deductible) endeavors that are approved in writing by HQ.

Students who qualify for these awards for the Hartwell Fellowship Program have three (3) years to use them on their non-academic ministry costs (or other approved nonprofit fellowship program endeavors) from the date they qualify for their initial award.

Please note the following:

- FCA Scholars students who choose option 1 can participate in the Hartwell Scholar Awards.
- FCA Scholars students who choose option 2 can participate in the Max and Beverly Bowman Awards and help make Adopt A Scholar awards possible for others.
- FCA Scholars award programs are listed on the FCA Grants page.
- HQ awards and scholarship programs may not be “stacked” or combined unless noted otherwise.
- Former FCA students who are eligible may participate in The Max and Beverly Bowman Awards even if they have previously received concurrent course discounts from HQ for high schoolers.
- Dismissal from FCA or HQ results in immediate disqualification for any HQ grant. Students must be in good standing to qualify for awards.
- No HQ grant, scholarship, or award pays for any aspect of or participation in Title IV programs. Grants are intended for ministry-related (non-academic) fellowship programs only.
- Awards for non-academic enrollment will continue based on academic credits successfully completed and will not “reset” by switching degrees.
- For students taking less than 12 college credits per semester with an accredited partner, scholarship amounts for non-academic enrollment will be prorated.
- Grants from these awards are given directly to nonprofit (tax-deductible) entities for non-academic student endeavors approved by HQ as part of the Hartwell Fellowship Program.

- HQ does not administer any aspect of participation in Title IV programs. Degrees associated with this fellowship program are offered wholly by accredited institutions. Hartwell Fellowship Program enrollment is optional and not required to earn an academic degree from partner institutions.
- HQ tuition, fees, and scholarship awards are subject to change without notice.
